Reception

Little Patuxent Review and books by contributing writers are available for sale.

☞ Little Patuxent Review is the rebirth of a literary magazine originally published in the late 1970s. The renewal of publication serves as a living memorial to the late Ralph and Margot Treitel, Columbia, Maryland, poets who founded the original run of the publication. Little Patuxent Review strives to promote the tradition of written and visual arts by creating a spirited magazine that reflects and draws upon the creativity and diversity within Howard County, the region, and the nation. ☞
